

Volunteer Role – Regional Team Member

We are looking for an enthusiastic volunteer Regional Representatives/Regional Team Members in your area to organise MTI activities locally and to promote the benefits of joining MTI.

The main roles of Regional Representatives/Regional Teams are to:

- Liaise with MTI practitioners in your area.
- Organise and promote events in your area for practitioners (submitting an annual budget to MTI for this)
- Attend National Practitioner Council meetings (two to three a year) to discuss the future of MTI and give feedback from practitioners in your area.
- Input into the organisation of the MTI Conferences.
- Visit MTI schools to discuss MTI and promote the benefits of MTI membership with students.

Support for this role is provided through monthly zoom calls with the Membership Officer and MTI Board's PA Lead. MTI also provides support for organising local events.

This role would suit someone who:

- Is organised
- Would like to build and be part of a community of massage therapists
- Enjoys speaking to and making links with MTI schools
- Has an interest in welcoming new MTI members and supporting them as they begin their massage career

Benefits

- Regional Representative specific training
- Free place on any events you organise
- Free ticket to any MTI Conference
- Free MTI Membership
